Mission of the Month– Samaritan's Purse

Once again Samaritan's Purse – Operation Christmas Child Shoe Box Ministry will be our Mission of the Month for October. Samaritan's purse is a non-denominational Christian relief organization led by Franklin Graham, son of Billy Graham. People are asked to fill a shoe box with toys, school supplies, hygiene items, etc. that will be sent to needy children in more than 130 countries. Last year we collected a record 3,676 shoe boxes. We will be handing out empty shoe boxes, and collecting filled boxes in the multi-purpose room every Sunday in October. The deadline for returning your shoe box is November 3rd.

BBQ

Thank you to Sonny's BBQ! At 6:30 p.m. in the Westlake Café, join us to enjoy a donated BBQ sandwich complete with mac& cheese, donated by Sonny's BBQ to the first 200 volunteers. YUMM!!!

We are thrilled to announce a shoe box packing party, Friday, Nov. 3 in the multi-purpose room. This is open to anyone in the community who would like to join us. At 6:30 p.m. Sonny's BBQ will be serving a delicious BBQ sandwich to the volunteers and at 7 p.m. the party will begin in the multi-purpose room. This is an extremely rewarding night and an event ALL AGES can participate in. The number of shoe boxes packed will be directly correlated to the amount of money is collected.

The church is in need of a used golf cart for maintenance. If anyone has one to either donate or sell reasonably, please call George Agisotelis at 683-2615. "Thank you!"
