Matthew 16:13-18

Have you ever been asked a question that you really weren't sure of the answer but somehow the right words came out of your mouth? This has happened to me on several occasions. Of course, there have also been times when I've opened my mouth and said exactly the wrong thing.

In our scripture lesson for this morning, Jesus asks his disciples what the people are saying about him...who he is. They offer some pretty lame suggestions. None was the right answer. So, he asked, "Who do you say that I am?"

Peter declares that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God. Peter, always impulsive, just opened his mouth and the right words came out. Jesus understood that there was no way that Peter had figured this out on his own. It had to have been revealed by God. This was a blessing. Someone knew him. Someone recognized who he was, and what he was doing here on earth.

Jesus seems surprised that Peter was the one who had figured it out. Simon Peter, the fisherman, the ordinary man, was the one who had the right answer and it was his faith upon which Jesus would build his church.

Our church, Palm Harbor United Methodist, is built on faith in Jesus. Our mission is to transform lives through faith in Jesus Christ. I encourage you to invite friends, family and neighbors to church this Sunday...either in the sanctuary or online. Let's introduce them to Jesus and allow Jesus to transform their lives.

With love and faith,

Rev. Sharon
