All In

James 1:22-25

Dear friends,

What do you see when you look in the mirror? I don't know about you, but I am always rather surprised. I don't know if my brain has not accepted that I am not quite as young as I use to be, but for some reason I am always surprised at how mature I look.

Several years ago, I decided that it would be a good idea to get a magnifying mirror to help me put on my face in the morning. I want to warn you that this is a terrible thing to do. Those little wrinkles look like craters and those bumps and scars look like the surface of the moon. It's a depressing way to start the day.

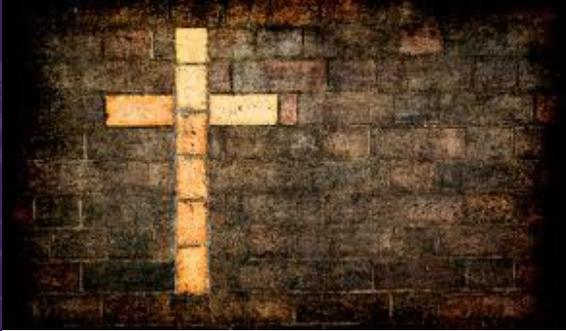

In our scripture lesson for this week from the book of James, he says that those who hear the word of God but do not do it, are like those who look in the mirror and then forget what they look like. Believe me, I'd like to forget what I look like but the mirror reflects the truth about my appearance. When I look in the word of God, it reflects the truth about my soul. When I hear the word and do not live it, I am forgetting who I really am as a child of God. My soul may have some blemishes, but God wipes them away so that I can be more than just a hearer of God's word but also a doer of God's will.

This Sunday we will explore what it means to be "All In" not just hearing God's word but being doers of God's word. I hope you will join us on the web.

With love and prayers,

Rev. Sharon
