My words and actions should match up with my life

Happy New Year! I hope you made it through the holidays without catching the flu or colds that have been circulating this season. It seems that it has been a more aggressive strain of illnesses this year. Many of our staff and members have caught the "bug". Pastor Dave is currently on the mend from something, so please keep him in your prayers this week. Pastor Dave's Bible Study on the Gospel of Matthew was scheduled to start this week. Due to his being out sick, the start of the course will be postponed until Wednesday, January 22, 2020.

Pastor Dave's
WEDNESDAY
BIBLE STUDY

Has been postponed and will reconvene on

January 22, 2020

We already have some exciting plans for 2020, and look forward to how else God will call us this year. Coming up in just a few weeks is our Walk for Freedom. This will be a great day to join together for fun, fellowship, and mission, as we walk to raise money for Bridging Freedom. This faith based organization is doing wonderful work to help restore young girls who have been rescued from human trafficking. Registration forms are available on our website or you can pick them up in the MPR on Sunday mornings. There is a deadline approaching if you want to be guaranteed a shirt and that is January 15th, so make sure you get your form in this Sunday! That same deadline is for sponsors who want to have their names on the shirt.

Please pick up a pledge form to raise additional dollars for the cause. We also want to encourage you to walk as a team! There will be awards for the Top Fundraising Individual, Top Fundraising Team, and the Largest Team.

Hope you will come join the fun and Walk for Freedom!
