Sunday Sermon "Send Me"

Worship times

9:30 a.m.

Isaiah 6:1-8 (NIV)

I am willing to go where God sends me..

So many times it seems, at least in my prayer life, that I pray simple straight-forward prayers. Sometimes they are prayers of praise. Sometimes, I confess it is kind of a shopping list to God---God I need this, this, and this. Sometimes they are prayers of confession. Sometimes my prayers are a mixture of all the above.

In our series on "Dangerous Prayers", we will be talking about stepping out of our comfort zone in our prayer life. What would happen to us individually, as a church, and as part of the Kingdom of God, if we 'prayed dangerously.'

Our sermon series that began last week was about praying the dangerous prayer, "Break Me." Has God broken your heart for what breaks His? Are we broken to the point of really meaning it when we pray "not my will, but your will be done?"

We will also be looking at these potentially dangerous prayers: "Send Me," "Search Me," and "Fill Me." Simple 2-word phrases and prayers that could be life changing and kingdom changing.

May we continue to step out of our comfort zone and pray dangerously.

Looking forward to worshiping with you on Sunday,

Pastor Dave
