Psalm 139: 23-24 (NIV)

Are we willing to be examined and thoroughly searched by God?

Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. Point out anything in me that offends you, and lead me along the path of everlasting life. (Psalm 139:23-24)

This prayer from Psalm 139 is like that. It is a little uncomfortable and frightening to ask God to search our hearts and to find anything that offends Him. Sin is like a cancer that grows in us, and if left untreated, it can lead to spiritual death. Asking God to search us and remove those offensive parts will restore us to spiritual health.

As we continue praying dangerous prayers, God will transform us.

Break me – surrender to God's will.

Send me – Say Yes whenever God calls.

Search me – open your heart and mind for a thorough examination.
