Pentecost

John 14:18-20

DON'T FORGET TO HAVE YOUR COMMUNION ELEMENTS AND WORSHIP SPACE READY FOR OUR TIME TOGETHER ON SUNDAY!

Have you ever felt abandoned? Have you ever abandoned someone? When my children were little it was quite a chore getting all four of them ready to go at the same time. I would get one dressed and ready and then ask them to go play while I got the baby ready.

My two older children were 5 and 7 and they required little help in getting ready. Anita, the three year old required a lot of help. I got her dressed and sent her to play with the older kids while I got the baby ready to go. Once I got Paula, the baby, dressed, we headed to the car.

When we got to the end of our street, I turned around to count and one, two three....Someone was missing? Who was missing? Anita, the three year old, of course. We turned around quickly and headed back to the house. When we got there, we could see this sad faced little three-year-old standing on the back porch trying to get in the door. Apparently, instead of going to the car, she decided to play in the backyard.

I don't know who was more upset...Anita or me. She was upset that we had left her, and I was upset that my child had been abandoned... although it was only for a very few minutes.

Jesus was preparing to leave his disciples and he did not want them to feel abandoned. He told them how much he loved them and promised that he would send the Holy Spirit to be with them, to teach and comfort them.

This Pentecost Sunday we will celebrate that the Holy Spirit has come to dwell with us.

See you Sunday,
