Romans 12:1-8

This scripture reading reminds us that even though we are all different, we are one body and that we do not all have the same gifts or the same function in the church. The number of people it takes for PHUMC to do all of its various ministries and functions is tremendous.

There are staff people on the ministry side. There are staff people on the schools side. There are staff people on the administrative side. I think we were all surprised when we applied for the PPP loan that we have over 125 employees serving PHUMC. In addition, we have dozens and dozens of volunteers who provide music, offer technical support for our worship services, prepare meals, lead small groups, serve on various committees, assist in the office, usher, park cars, set up communion, and serve in missions in our community and beyond. I'm sure there are others that I haven't mentioned. Each one is critical to the vitality of the church.

Paul is telling the church in Rome and the church in Palm Harbor that as members of the body of Christ we are gifted with different abilities, gifts, and talents. Yet, we are all essential workers for the building of the kingdom of God. I want to thank each one of you for all that you do to make PHUMC a great place to worship, to grow in faith, and to serve the Lord.

With love and gratitude,
Rev. Sharon
