"...and I will give you rest."

I will be leaving on vacation tomorrow. I am going to North Carolina to visit my daughter and her husband who live in Cashiers. My son and other two daughters will be gathering at my house to begin the eight hour journey. It has been a long time since I have had this much time with all my children. It seems we are all excited about spending this time together. They are planning to go zip lining...I'm not. We are planning a visit to Asheville and to Ruth's Chris for my birthday celebration. These last months as your pastor have been challenging but very rewarding. I am ready for a little rest and relaxation. Rev. Cathy will be bringing the message on Sunday and I will get to watch from afar.

Jesus said, "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." I am going to take that literally and enjoy this time of rest. The mountains are a wonderful place to draw closer to Jesus. I hope you find a place and time to find rest and to draw closer to Jesus this summer.

We will drive back on Monday, August 10, and I plan to be in the office the following day. We have Crisis Training that morning. I look forward to returning rested and ready to tackle any new crisis that emerges in the months ahead.

With love and prayers,
Rev. Sharon
