Matt. 15:1-10

You probably know that I am old school. I love traditional worship. I love the liturgy and the hymns. I love the pageantry and majesty. However, I have come to love praise songs, joyful expressions of love for God, wild and crazy question marks, and altars that catch our attention. They remind us that the Bible is the word of God, that the candles represent the light of Christ, and that God is a God of creativity.

Everything we do during the worship service is meant to please God while drawing us all into a deeper relationship with him.

Here at Palm Harbor United Methodist, we try to offer something that will touch the hearts and minds of all who come for worship, whether they are old school, or newer school. Yet, all that we do must be done to honor and glorify God.

In our scripture lesson for this week, Jesus reminds us that it is not any of these things that make our service a worship service. It is why we do these things. It is what is in our hearts that matters. It is who we are attempting to please.

This Sunday we will look at the question: What is Worship? I hope you will join us either online or in the sanctuary at 9:30. We work hard to prepare a worship experience that will please God and that will touch your life in a meaningful way and help you to worship him in truth and spirit.

With love and gratitude,
Rev. Sharon
