Matthew 13:31-33 & 44-45

What is the most valuable possession that you own? I have tried to think of an answer to that question. I am not a keeper. If I haven't used something in a year or so, I tend to either give it away or throw it away. I don't keep cards and have few keepsakes. I have a gravy boat that belonged to my mother and an old journal where my father logged the hours of his employees when they were building the power lines over rural West Virginia back in the early 1940s. Neither of these has any monetary value.

I've really tried to give my children and grandchildren most of the items that I have collected over the years during my travels. I keep telling them that I'm trying to make it easier for them to sort out my stuff when I am dead and gone.

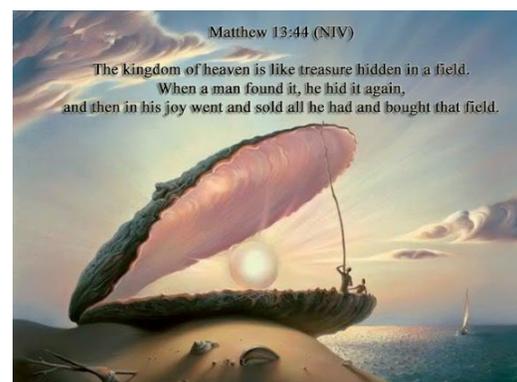

I have even given away most of my clergy stoles and robes. I have kept one black and one white robe and only a couple of my many stoles. Most things are just not that important to me. In our scripture lesson for this week Jesus tells us that seeking God's kingdom is the most important thing of all. It is worth risking all that we have in order to attain entry into God's kingdom.

So, we need to ask ourselves, what is it that we value most in this world?

With love and prayers,

Rev. Sharon
