Shared by Sharon

Sunday is Palm Sunday. We begin Holy Week with celebration but that time of celebration is short lived. The people were celebrating Jesus arrival. Surely he would mount a rebellion against the Romans and become their long awaited king...a king like David.

Their hopes and expectations were not to be fulfilled. Over these past few weeks, our hopes and expectations have not been fulfilled. We had hoped to be back in our sanctuary by Easter and we had hoped life would return to normal by then as well. However, we will continue to celebrate his entry into Jerusalem, suffer with him as he is crucified, and rejoice on Easter morning when his followers find an empty tomb.

We will continue to worship and praise him thanks to modern technology that enables us to gather together while "staying home." Please check out the opportunities to do so which are highlighted.

I will look forward to seeing you on the web.

With love and prayers,
Sharon

Holy Week Schedule

Palm Sunday, April 5 - Palm Sunday's service will be offered online as we have been doing the past couple of weeks. If you have a palm branch, feel free to wave it with us! We will celebrate the coming of Christ! Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Holy Thursday, April 9 - 6:30 p.m. join Rev. Cathy on Facebook LIVE to share in scripture, prayer, and Holy Communion. If you were unable to pick up your communion cups at the church, we will bless whatever you are able to use at home...juice, bread, crackers.

Good Friday, April 10 - Starting at noon, a Good Friday meditation video, narrated by our Student Ministry Director, Joel Figueroa, will be available for viewing. Spend this day in reflection of the sacrifice Jesus made on our behalf. You may also join in a watch party to share in the experience at 3 p.m. or at 6 p.m. by going on the Palm Harbor United Methodist Church Facebook page.

EASTER, April 12 – We will be posting pictures you submit of a sunrise and adding a caption that celebrates the resurrection of Jesus. We will be having a visit from one of Jesus' most beloved followers, Mary Magdalene, who will tell us of her life changing encounter with Jesus. You won't want to miss her message for today's church. Easter Services will be available online at phumc.net as well as Facebook.
